5. Other Items

A. Overview of the Certified Local Government Program

Ms. Welden, Planner II, gave a PowerPoint presentation to the Historic Preservation Board entitled: "The Florida Certified Local Government Program."

Ms. Bryla, Community Development Director, asked the board if they would like Staff to present a goals workshop. The board agreed to a goals workshop.

Ms. Welden updated the board in regard to the progress of the Design Standards Project with consultant, Tara Salmieri, AICP of PlanActive Studio. The board requested the following of Staff:

- Update the board in the future about the results of Tara Salmieri's stakeholder interviews with local architects, realtors, developers and business owners.
- Address opposing views and fears during the future presentation.

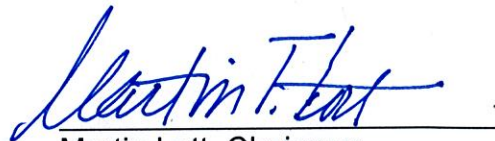

Member Douglass commented about the guidelines of new buildings conforming with the existing structures on 8th Avenue in Pass-A-Grille. Member Douglass expressed a concern in regard to the scale and appearance of an architectural rendering being overpowering of adjacent structures. Ms. Bryla replied Staff will do their best to adhere to replicating the footprint of historic structures.

6. Adjournment

There being no further business to come before the board, the meeting was adjourned at 4:10 p.m.
