4. Agenda Items

A. Proposed Historic Marker

Ms. Bryla, Community Development Director, welcomed Member DeYampert to the Historic Preservation Board.

Ms. Porter gave the Staff presentation to the board, and board discussion ensued in regard to the Historic Marker.

Member Loughery offered to prepare and draft language for the text before the December meeting.

Member Young suggested investigating the verbiage on current plaques to avoid repeating language on the new plaque. Ms. Bryla responded that Staff will research the text on surrounding plaques and will inform the board of the results before there is a vote on the text at the next meeting.

Chairman Marone made a motion that the plaque, after determining what the language will be, be located on the east end of Eighth Avenue in Pass-A-Grille. The motion was seconded by Member Young and was unanimously approved by a roll call vote (5 yeses - 0 nos).

B. Possible Projects

Ms. Porter gave the Staff presentation to the board, and board discussion followed in regard to the following items:

- Staff research options of signage for various neighborhoods throughout the island
- list the following as an agenda item on the Historic Preservation Board's December 2017 agenda: developing guidelines on street ends and public realm elements
- Member Loughery is to submit verbiage for the text to Ms. Porter by 11/27/17; Ms. Porter will then distribute it to the board members
