Sec. 46-33. - Enumeration.

The maintaining, using, placing, depositing, leaving or permitting to be or remain on any public or private property of any of the following items, conditions or actions is declared to be and constitutes a nuisance, provided this enumeration shall not be construed as a designation of all nuisances:

(1) Vegetation as follows:

b. Dead branches or fronds on trees or shrubs.

(2) Accumulation of trash, litter, debris, garbage, bottles, paper, cans, rags, dead or decayed fish, fowl, meat or other animal matter; fruit, vegetables, offal, bricks, concrete, scrap lumber or other building debris or other refuse of any nature.

(3) Any condition which provides harborage for rats, mice, snakes and other vermin.

(4) Buildings and structures as follows:

a. Any building, dock or other structure which is in such a dilapidated condition that it is unfit for human habitation or use or which is kept in such an insanitary condition that it is a menace to the health of people residing in the vicinity thereof or presents a more than ordinarily dangerous life safety code violation or fire hazard in the vicinity where it is located.

b. Any building, structure or other improvement on which the paint or other exterior coating or surface is flaking or has deteriorated to the point that the building, structure or other improvement is unsightly in appearance and thus adversely affects the aesthetic appearance of the area.

(9) Any accumulation of stagnant water permitted or maintained on any lot, piece of ground or swimming pool.

Sec. 98-65. - Unsightly conditions.

The following conditions are hereby deemed to be unsightly conditions and are prohibited. The following conditions are prohibited on any real property in the City:

(1) Structures that are:

b. Left in a state of disrepair;

(2) Abandoned or broken equipment; broken or discarded furniture and household appliances in visible yard areas.

(3) Building exteriors in a condition of deterioration or disrepair such that the condition causes measurable diminution of surrounding property values.

(4) Property exteriors with trash, litter, debris, packing boxes, lumber, construction material, solid waste, horticulture debris, salvage materials, appliances, machinery, equipment and any furniture, excluding furniture specifically designed for outdoor use. Failure to maintain the premises in a clean, safe and sanitary condition is a violation. The owner and operator shall keep that part of the exterior property subject to its control or occupancy in a clean and sanitary condition.

Sec. 98-66. - Residential and commercial property maintenance.

- (a) All premises shall be maintained in compliance with the standards in this section.
- (b) Standards for improved property.
- (2) Exterior walls. Exterior walls of buildings shall be:
- (3) Windows. a. Every window shall be maintained in sound working condition and good repair to be substantially weather-tight and rodent-proof. b. Openings originally designed as windows shall be maintained as windows, unless approved by the building official for enclosure. The enclosure of a window shall be by either bricking the opening, blocking the opening with concrete blocks and stuccoing the exterior, or boarding the opening. When boarding is used, it shall be of trim fit, sealed to prevent water intrusion, and painted or stained to conform to the other exterior portions of the building. The boarding shall remain in place and be properly maintained.
- (5) Exterior doors. Every exterior door and hatchway or garage door shall be kept in sound working condition and good repair.
- (7) Exterior surface treatment. All exterior surfaces, including by way of example and not limitation, doors and window frames, cornices, porches, decks, trim, balconies, fences and docks, shall be maintained in good condition. Exterior wood surfaces, other than decay-resistant woods, shall be protected from the elements and decay by painting or other protective treatment. Peeling paint is prohibited and surfaces shall be repainted. All metal surfaces shall be coated to inhibit rust and corrosion and all surfaces with rust or corrosion shall be stabilized and coated.
- (18) Swimming pools. All swimming pools, spas and architectural pools, ponds or bodies of water shall be properly maintained so as not to create a safety hazard or harbor insect infestation. Water shall not be allowed to stagnate or to become polluted. All pools shall be free from unsightly appearance.
- (c) Litter.
- (3) Accumulation of litter. Any accumulation of litter in or upon any property, vacant or improved, is deemed a nuisance and is prohibited. Failure to remove the accumulation by the property owner, tenant, occupant, agent, manager or other person who owns, maintains, or controls any premises or portion thereof, whether improved or unimproved, is a violation.
- (d) Outdoor storage. Outside storage of materials and equipment shall be restricted to the rear yard area and screened by an opaque fence or hedge so that such materials are not visible from any public right-of-way or adjoining lot.

Sec. 6.15. - Fences and walls.

Fences and walls are permitted, provided fences and walls shall not exceed four feet in height in required front yards and eight feet in height elsewhere. Secondary front yards shall also be considered as front yards for the purposes of this section; provided, however, fences and walls in waterfront yards shall not exceed four feet in height. See also section 6.21 for visibility requirements at street intersections.

105.1 Required.

Any owner or authorized agent who intends to construct, enlarge, alter, repair, move, demolish, or change the occupancy of a building or structure, or to erect, install, enlarge, alter, repair, remove, convert or replace any impact-resistant coverings, electrical, gas, mechanical or plumbing system, the installation of which is regulated by this code, or to cause any such work to be done, shall first make application to the building official and obtain the required permit.

Sec. 1.4. - Conflicts with other ordinances, covenants or agreements.

Wherever higher or more restrictive standards are established by the provisions of any other applicable statute, ordinance or regulation than are established by the provisions of this ordinance, those regulations shall govern. This ordinance is not intended to interfere with, abrogate or annul any easement, covenant or other agreements between parties, except that if this ordinance imposes greater restriction, this ordinance shall control.

Don Ce-Sar Place Subdivision Plat, 1925, Sheet 1 of 6.

“The Thomas J. Rowe Corporation, as owner of all the above described premises and, by the recording of this plat, hereby revokes all former plats affecting same. All the streets and roads shown hereon are hereby dedicated to the Public for highway purposes...Blocks “M” and “N” are hereby dedicated to the use of the property-owners in this subdivision for beach and bathing purposes and no tents, vehicles, nor structures of any kind shall be permitted thereon...”

Sec. 25.5. - Prohibitions.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the following shall be prohibited:

(1) The removal or disturbance of vegetation of a dune;

(2) Planting of vegetation except for native, salt-resistant species suitable for beach and dune stabilization;

(3) The crossing, passing over or passing through any dune by any person or vehicle, except in where such crossing is marked for access pursuant to this section; or

(4) Blocking or causing to be blocked by any means whatsoever any pathway leading to or from a public beach.

Sec. 25.9. - Permit required.

(a) Dunes. In no instance shall any person, municipality, county or other public or private agency excavate or otherwise cause damage to a dune or conduct or cause to be conducted any activity to improve or enhance a dune without obtaining the necessary permits from the Florida Department of Environmental Protection and the city.
