C. Case No. 20240205

City of St. Pete Beach v. Charles Mackert

Address: 206 58th Ave St. Pete Beach FL 33706

Sec. 46-33. - Enumeration.

The maintaining, using, placing, depositing, leaving or permitting to be or remain on any public or private property of any of the following items, conditions or actions is declared to be and constitutes a nuisance, provided this enumeration shall not be construed as a designation of all nuisances:

(4) Buildings and structures as follows:

b. Any building, structure or other improvement on which the paint or other exterior coating or surface is flaking or has deteriorated to the point that the building, structure or other improvement is unsightly in appearance and thus adversely affects the aesthetic appearance of the area.

Sec. 98-65. - Unsightly conditions.

The following conditions are hereby deemed to be unsightly conditions and are prohibited.

The following conditions are prohibited on any real property in the City:

(1) Structures that are:

a. Partially destroyed; or

b. Left in a state of disrepair

(3) Building exteriors in a condition of deterioration or disrepair such that the condition causes measurable diminution of surrounding property values.

Sec. 98-66. - Residential and commercial property maintenance.

(a) All premises shall be maintained in compliance with the standards in this section.

(b) Standards for improved property.

(2) Exterior walls. Exterior walls of buildings shall be: a. Maintained free from holes, breaks, and loose or rotting materials; and

b. Maintained, weatherproofed and surfaces properly coated as needed to prevent deterioration. Decorative features such as cornices, belt courses, corbels, trim, wall facings and similar decorative features shall be maintained in good repair with proper anchorage. Any graffiti shall be removed or repainted to match existing surfaces.

(7) Exterior surface treatment. All exterior surfaces, including by way of example and not limitation, doors and window frames, cornices, porches, decks, trim, balconies, fences and docks, shall be maintained in good condition. Exterior wood surfaces, other than decay-resistant woods, shall be protected from the elements and decay by painting or other protective treatment. Peeling paint is prohibited and surfaces shall be repainted. All metal surfaces shall be coated to inhibit rust and corrosion and all surfaces with rust or corrosion shall be stabilized and coated.

D. Case No. 20240141

City of St. Pete Beach v. Gintaras Karosas

Address: 350 72nd Ave. St. Pete Beach FL 33706

Sec. 46-33. - Enumeration.

The maintaining, using, placing, depositing, leaving or permitting to be or remain on any public or private property of any of the following items, conditions or actions is declared to be and constitutes a nuisance, provided this enumeration shall not be construed as a designation of all nuisances:

(12) Any wornout, scrapped, partially dismantled, nonoperative, unusable or discarded materials or objects, such as automobiles or parts thereof, building materials, machinery, metal, wastepaper, rags, glassware, tinware, vehicles, boats or parts thereof, or other items of junk.

(13) The storage of any vehicle, whether motorized or nonmotorized, including but not limited to automobiles, trucks, trailers, campers, recreational vehicles, motor homes, boats, boat trailers, or parts thereof, without a valid license plate or valid vehicle or trailer or boat-trailer or other registration certificate, showing the vehicle or part thereof to be titled in the name of the owner or occupier of the property upon which the vehicle or part thereof is located. Failure to have such license or other registration certificate specifically attached to the vehicle or part thereof shall be prima facie evidence that the property is worn out, scrapped, nonoperative, unusable or discarded, as provided in subsection (12) of this section.

Sec. 98-67. - Junk vehicle, junk vessels and abandoned property.

(c) Parking, storage, abandoning, keeping or leaving of certain vehicles or boats restricted and prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person to park, store, abandon, keep or leave exposed or outside any enclosure any vehicle or boat which is in a wrecked, junked, inoperative, partially dismantled or abandoned condition on any real property, private or public, within the city limits for such time and under such circumstances as to reasonably cause such vehicle or boat to be a danger to the public health, safety and welfare, or to be an eyesore, to be unsightly or to be aesthetically unpleasing due to such conditions and appearance. It shall not be a violation of this article if the person's action is in connection with a bona fide business purpose or enterprise that is lawfully situated and licensed within the city, or if the vehicle or boat is being actively restored and worked upon by the owner and kept within an enclosure on his real property.

(e) Absence of a current license plate or current registration as prima facie evidence of abandonment. For the purpose of the enforcement of this article, the absence of a current license plate or current registration on a vehicle or boat shall be prima facie evidence that such vehicle or boat is abandoned, junked or discarded. The presence of a current license plate or registration solely shall not, in and of itself, exempt any vehicle or boat from the provisions of this article.

E. Case No. 20240155

City of St. Pete Beach v. Stephen Boyle

Address: 3672 Belle Vista Dr. E St. Pete Beach FL 33706

Sec. 98-123.1. - Permits required.

Any applicant who intends to undertake any development activity within the scope of this section, including buildings, structures and facilities exempt from the Florida Building Code, which is wholly within or partially within any flood hazard area shall first make application to the floodplain administrator and shall obtain the required permit(s) and approval(s). Permits shall include a condition that all other applicable city, state or federal permits be obtained before commencement of the permitted development. Issuance of a permit by the city does not in any way create any right on the part of an applicant to obtain a permit from a state or federal agency and does not create any liability on the part of the city for issuance of the permit if the applicant fails to obtain requisite approvals or fulfill obligations imposed by a state or federal agency or undertakes actions that result in a violation of state or federal law.

F. Case No. 20240029

City of St. Pete Beach v. Micheal Martin

Address: 2 Alhambra St. St. Pete Beach FL 33706

Sec. 46-33. - Enumeration.

The maintaining, using, placing, depositing, leaving or permitting to be or remain on any public or private property of any of the following items, conditions or actions is declared to be and constitutes a nuisance, provided this enumeration shall not be construed as a designation of all nuisances:

Accumulation of trash, litter, debris, garbage, bottles, paper, cans, rags, dead or decayed fish, fowl, meat or other animal matter; fruit, vegetables, offal, bricks, concrete, scrap lumber or other building debris or other refuse of any nature.

(12)

Any wornout, scrapped, partially dismantled, nonoperative, unusable or discarded materials or objects, such as automobiles or parts thereof, building materials, machinery, metal, wastepaper, rags, glassware, tinware, vehicles, boats or parts thereof, or other items of junk.

Sec. 98-65 - Unsightly Conditions.

The following conditions are hereby deemed to be unsightly conditions and are prohibited. The following conditions are prohibited on any real property in the City:

(1) Structures that are:

- a. Partially destroyed; or
- b. Left in a state of disrepair

(4) Property exteriors with trash, litter, debris, packing boxes, lumber, construction material, solid waste, horticulture debris, salvage materials, appliances, machinery, equipment and any furniture, excluding furniture specifically designed for outdoor use. Failure to maintain the premises in a clean, safe and sanitary condition is a violation. The owner and operator shall keep that part of the exterior property subject to its control or occupancy in a clean and sanitary condition.

Sec. 98-66. - Residential and commercial property maintenance.

(a) All premises shall be maintained in compliance with the standards in this section.

(b) Standards for improved property.

(c) Litter.

(1) Storage of litter.

(2) Depositing litter. It shall be unlawful to throw, discard, place, drop, or deposit litter in any manner or amount in or upon any real property, highway, street, right-of-way or body of water within the limits of the city, except in such containers specifically provided and designated for the disposal of litter, is a violation. Litter strewn by a pedestrian except at approved and permitted disposal sites is a violation. Litter ejected or discarded from a motor vehicle except at approved and permitted disposal sites is a violation.

(3) Accumulation of litter. Any accumulation of litter in or upon any property, vacant or improved, is deemed a nuisance and is prohibited. Failure to remove the accumulation by the property owner, tenant, occupant, agent, manager or other person who owns, maintains, or controls any premises or portion thereof, whether improved or unimproved, is a violation.

Sec. 46-33. - Enumeration.

The maintaining, using, placing, depositing, leaving or permitting to be or remain on any public or private property of any of the following items, conditions or actions is declared to be and constitutes a nuisance, provided this enumeration shall not be construed as a designation of all nuisances:

(4) Buildings and structures as follows:

b. Any building, structure or other improvement on which the paint or other exterior coating or surface is flaking or has deteriorated to the point that the building, structure or other improvement is unsightly in appearance and thus adversely affects the aesthetic appearance of the area.

Sec. 98-64. - General maintenance.

(a) Nuisances and hazards. Real property shall be maintained free of nuisances and any hazards to the safety of the occupants, customers or persons utilizing the premises or to pedestrians passing by.

Sec. 98-66. - Residential and commercial property maintenance.

(a) All premises shall be maintained in compliance with the standards in this section.

(b) Standards for improved property.

(24) Fences and walls. Fences and walls shall be maintained in a safe and structurally sound condition, in good repair with the surface coated or painted. Fences shall be free from loose or rotting materials. Metal fencing shall be free from rust or deterioration.

APPEAL: Florida Statutes Chapter 286.0105 Notices of meetings and hearings must advise that a record is required to appeal. Each board, commission, or agency of this state or of any political subdivision thereof shall include in the notice of any meeting or hearing, if notice of the meeting or hearing is required, of such board, commission, or agency, conspicuously on such notice, the advice that, if a person decides to appeal any decision made by the board, agency, or commission with respect to any matter considered at such meeting or hearing, he or she will need a record of the proceedings, and that, for such purpose, he or she may need to ensure that a verbatim record of the proceedings is made, which record includes the testimony and evidence upon which the appeal is to be based.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT: Florida Statutes 286.26. Accessibility of public meetings to the physically handicapped. In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Florida Statutes, persons needing special accommodations to participate in a meeting should contact City Hall at (727) 367-2735 no later than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting for assistance.

CODE OF ORDINANCES, SECTION 1-15: Award of attorney's fees and other costs. In all instances where a lawsuit is instituted or defended on behalf of the city to enforce any provision of the Code of Ordinances, to collect fees, liens, assessments or fines, or otherwise secure compliance with any provision of the Code of Ordinances, the city shall be entitled to recover all costs incurred, including reasonable attorney's fees and court costs through the trial and appellate levels. This section shall apply to all instances where the city is required to defend an appeal from any order, notice or determination by the city or its officials.

For meetings that require materials to be submitted, the deadline to submit materials to the City is a minimum of 24 business hours in advance of the meeting. Materials including electronic media are to be submitted to cityclerk@stpetebeach.org. The Clerk's Office will then scan the agenda packet with the new documents and repost on the website for transparency purposes.

All agenda material is available for review at City Hall.
